

arcsc.org
803-748-5020
thearc@arcsc.org
254 Corley Mill Rd., Lexington, SC 29072

Achieve with us.

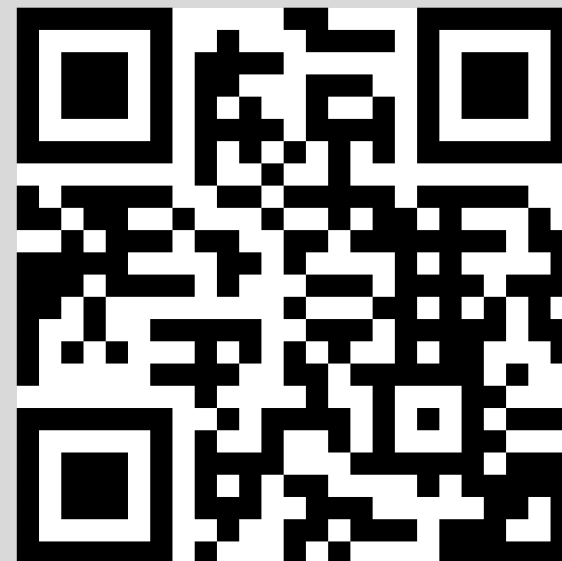

The Arc of South Carolina is a statewide advocacy organization dedicated to supporting the rights of individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities. As a case management organization, we focus on person-centered planning, promoting inclusion, and empowering people with disabilities to make their own life choices.

Explore our Statewide Directory of Disability Resources to find services throughout South Carolina by visiting the Resources tab on our website. You can also access information about free financial planning resources and future planning support there. Our goal is to ensure individuals with disabilities and their families have the tools they need to live fulfilling lives. Visit our website today to learn more and get involved.

For a list of additional service providers near you, visit the SC Department of Disabilities and Special Needs website at ddsn.sc.gov and search their Provider/Service Directory.

This list does not include all the resources that may be available to you or your loved one. Access to some services may require SC Medicaid eligibility. For more information, please reach out to your case manager.

arcsc.org

Scan the QR code to learn more.

The Adult Guide to Disability Programs, Services & Resources in South Carolina

Able SC empowers individuals with disabilities to achieve independence by promoting community inclusion and increasing access. able-sc.org

Center for Disability Resources Library lets you check out books, videos, and other materials related to various disabilities. They are located at the USC School of Medicine Library. uscmed.sc.libguides.com/cdrlibrary

Community Long Term Care (CLTC) Division offers programs to help individuals who want to live at home, need assistance with care and are financially eligible for Medicaid. 888-971-1637

Disability Rights South Carolina advocates for the legal, civil, and human rights of people with disabilities in the state. disabilityrightssc.org

Greenwood Genetic Center provides genetic services, diagnostic laboratory testing, educational programs and resources, and cutting-edge research in the field of medical genetics. ggc.org

IMPACT SC Self-Advocacy Council is a statewide group promoting positive change for people with disabilities by working together to improve lives and advocate for change. impactinsc.com

Medicaid Home and Community-Based Waiver Services allow states to provide a wide range of services as an alternative to institutional care that are not otherwise covered under Medicaid. It is important to apply for a waiver as soon as possible, even if you think you won't need these services for a few years, as there are currently waiting lists. ddsn.sc.gov

Palmetto Able Savings Plan helps you save and invest for tomorrow in a tax-advantaged ABLE account without losing federal needs-based benefits. palmettoable.com

SC Assistive Technology Program provides technology for people with disabilities so they can work, live, learn, and be an independent part of the community. sc.edu/scatp

SC BHDD Office of Mental Health prioritizes adults, children, and families affected by mental illnesses and emotional disorders to support their recovery. If you or someone you know is experiencing a mental health emergency, call the Statewide Crisis Response dispatcher at 833-364-2274 or dial 988. scdmh.org

SC Department on Aging (SCDOA) provides resources and support for older adults, including those with disabilities, to enhance their quality of life. aging.sc.gov

SC Department of Behavioral Health & Developmental Disabilities (BHDD) is the state agency responsible for providing services to individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities, including autism, traumatic brain injury, spinal cord injury, and fetal alcohol syndrome. ddsn.sc.gov

SC Department of Health and Human Services (DHHS) administers Medicaid/TEFRA to low income individuals in the state. scdhhs.gov

SC BHDD Office of Mental Health prioritizes adults, children, and families affected by mental illnesses and emotional disorders to support their recovery. If you or someone you know is experiencing a mental health emergency, call the Statewide Crisis Response dispatcher at 833-364-2274 or dial 988. scdmh.org

SC Department of Social Services (DSS) is the state agency that promotes the safety, permanency, and well-being of children and vulnerable adults. dss.sc.gov

SC Developmental Disabilities Council advocates and creates positive change for South Carolinians with developmental disabilities and their families. Call them at 803-734-0465 to learn more.

SC Parents has proven prevention programs and resources that help families with their challenges, big and small. scparents.org

SC Respite Coalition educates family caregivers about respite—short, regular breaks from caregiving—and works to build a respite network. screspitecoalition.org

SC Thrive helps individuals access resources to support their physical, mental, and financial well-being. scthrive.org

South Carolina Youth Advocate Program offers individualized treatment, flexible programs, advocacy, and community-based services for at-risk or special needs children and families with emotional, behavioral, mental, and medical needs. scyap.com

Services for Children and Youth with Special Health Care Needs Children under 18 with chronic illnesses, disabling conditions, or developmental delays may qualify for special healthcare services and financial assistance. dph.sc.gov/health-wellness/child-teen-health/services-children-and-youth-special-health-care-needs

South Carolina Child Care Inclusion Collaborative offers personalized training and technical support to help child care providers include children with disabilities and developmental delays in their programs. scinclusion.org

Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) helps low-income families purchase food. dss.sc.gov

Transportation Services are available for people with disabilities. catchthecometsc.gov

Unumb Center for Neurodevelopment provides comprehensive therapy and support services for individuals with autism and neurodevelopmental disorders, focusing on personalized care to enhance quality of life, social skills, and independence. unumbcenter.org

Wright Directions Family Services offers comprehensive rehabilitative behavioral health services throughout South Carolina. For more information, visit wrightdfs.com.

