What Parents of Children with Disabilities Should Know

Medicaid Home and Community-Based Waiver Services (HCBS) Program allows states to furnish, as an alternative to institutional care, a broad array of services that are otherwise not covered under the Medicaid program. You must apply for a waiver as soon as possible (even if you think you won't need these services for a few years) because, at this time, there are waiting lists. For more information, visit tinyurl.com/HCBSWaiversSC or contact your case manager for assistance with applying.

S.C. Department of Disabilities and Special Needs (DDSN) is the state agency in charge of services for South Carolinians with intellectual disability and developmental disabilities (such as autism, traumatic brain injury, spinal cord injury, and fetal alcohol syndrome). For more information, including community education, contact 803-898-9600 or visit dds.sc.gov.

Medicaid/TEFRA provides health care coverage to low-income individuals, families and the disabled. For eligibility determination, call 888-549-0820 or visit scdhhs.gov/Getting-Started.

S.C. Department of Health & Human Services (DHHS) is the state agency that administers Medicaid. For more information, call 888-549-0820 or visit scdhhs.gov.

Health Insurance Premium Payment (HIPP) helps families with the cost of premium payments for eligible Medicaid beneficiaries who retain their private health insurance. Call 888-289-0709 (option 5, then option 4) or visit them online at tinyurl.com/SCHIPPprogram.

Supplemental Security Income provides financial assistance to meet basic needs for food, clothing and shelter. It is designed to help aged, blind, and disabled people who have little to no income. Call the Social Security office at 1-800-772-1213 for more information or visit ssa.gov/ssi.

S.C. Department of Social Services (DSS) is the state agency that promotes the safety, permanency, and well-being of children and vulnerable adults. For more information, call 803-898-7601 or visit dss.sc.gov.
